Dear Mother:

This is St. Patrick's day. and we had eggs for breakfast. You know when we have eggs for breakfast we always let every body know. of course. All the boys have green dust pans and they have them tied outside their windows. One of the boys has his green table cloth on his broom hanging out the window them but I don't know where they are.

Our Easter ~~&~~ Exams
begin on Monday.

There were four of us
gals got up at half past 6 this morning and went for a walk. It is now ten minutes to 9
so I will have to hurry up or I will be late for school.

I had enough money
for my fair home at Easter.
