

EDITORIAL

We have been asked why it is that the Spotlight has less pages than it used to have, and the reason is this: If you compare a type written letter with a newspaper, you will find & see that the typewritten letters are much larger, and that the lines are much farther apart. By using type, therefore, we can get exactly the same amount of news onto very much less paper. And as paper is expensive, this is a GOOD IDEA.

The Wisconsin story has got very much exaggerated. A man who is working with a big printing outfit in Wisconsin -- it has something in the region of a thousand employers -- dropped in to see us, so we introduced him to the sub-editor, our spaniel, and the three of us had a very pleasant afternoon together. We showed him what we were doing, and he was very interested and said he would send us up various things which might be of use. This he has done. It is very kind of him, and the Spotlight is likely to improve as a result.

To the chap who asked where we got the news of dances from: we usually get the full details from one of the committee who is running the show, and the general outline from some trustworthy individual who actually was there. In the particular case he asked about, we got it from a friend who is about quite a bit at night. He happens to be a bat. At least that is the spaniel's story, and we intend to stick to it!

holders had not been called he was certain that should the Ferry Company be unable or unwilling to supply the Vesuvius-Crofton ferry that the company would not be a dog-in-the-manger but would allow some other company to do so. A committee of the Chamber of Commerce consisting of Mrs. Roy Coleman, Art Young, Des. Crofton, together with Mayor Ragg of Duncan, Mayor Westwood of Nanaimo and a representative of Up Island Chamber of Commerce, went to see Evan Jones, Deputy Minister of Public Works, who said he would send engineers to investigate the Vesuvius-Crofton- Retreat Cove area.

Representatives of the Ferry Company have been to Seattle to investigate the possibility of purchasing a suitable boat. We understand that no decision has been reached because a strict inspection is necessary before purchase. Three boats were looked at.

PARKS. Rustic tables and chairs have been put on Baynes Peak, Maxwell Park by the Parks Department. The road is open and the visitors' book has reached the fortieth page. We are told the amount of appropriation from the Government depends to a large degree on the number of people who have visited the Park and signed their name. As we said the road is now open.

MAYNE ISLAND FALL FAIR. The annual Fall Fair held under the auspices of the Mayne Island Horticultural Society on Wed. 20. Aug. was, despite the reduction in the number of entries in some sections, quite a success. The quality of exhibits was maintained & in some classes a definite improvement was noticed.

The Directors of the Fair noticed with pleasure the presence of visitors from other Islands. Two of the group, Curlew & Prevost, sent their entire population & entries were also received from Galiano & North Pender.

SALT SPRING FALL FAIR.

Your editor was not able to visit this Fair as he had sprained his back and had to be flat in bed. However there were more exhibits than last year & the quality was good. Col. Carvosso introduced Larry Giovando & Mrs. A. Davis presented Mrs. Giovando with a bouquet. Great credit is due to Harold Price & his Committee.

We might mention among the exhibits the rugs made by Mrs. Ireland, aged 82.

One of the trophies, a silver tray for dairy produce (by Birks) which was presented by the Bank of Montreal, was flown in in order to be in time for the Fair.

PENDER ISLAND. The Womens Institute held their first meeting of the fall season at the home of Mrs. Ray Bracket, 5 Sept. Mrs. H.G. Scott, President, was in the Chair.

LARRY GIOVANDO VISITS ISLANDS.

Larry Giovando, the MLA for our Islands, flew to Saturna to open the Fall Fair & also opened the Fall Fair at Salt Spring. He was impressed by the excellence of the exhibits & felt that these Fairs are a tremendous asset to the community not only as a method of bringing people together as a spur to the growing of better products but also as a means whereby talent in painting, needlework, etc. could be brought out.

SATURNA FALL FAIR. The grand aggregate was won by F. Giblin & the junior championship by Miss Betty Money. The door prize by Mrs. B. Hunt.
