FOUR CANDIDATES FOR TUESDAY ELECTION

SHEEP MEN UNITE

Seventeen Salt Spring Island sheep breeders met at the Fulford Hall on Wednesday evening, June 12, to explore the benefits that could be derived if they were to form an association.

A lively discussion brought forth many problems presently hampering the industry.

Several constructive and possible solutions were suggested that would materially benefit the breeders through the services of a mutual aid type of organization.

Problems ranged from the lack of availability of the findings of recent research programs, to the development and rotation of pasture; marketing at the proper time through lack of transportation by the small flock breeder; and need of a veterinary service since the retirement of Bill Evans.

The meeting unanimously agreed to form a Salt Spring Island Sheep Breeders' Association. Membership will be open to people interested in the promotion and development of the sheep industry.

Officers elected were, president, Mike Larmour; vice-president, Jim Stewart; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Beth Wood.

A vote of thanks was extended to Bob Akerman who arranged the meeting and provided the refreshments and meeting place.

The president called the next meeting for Wednesday, June 26, Fulford Hall, at 8:30 pm.

UNITED STATES

NEWS CENSORED

DURING ELECTION

You don't know what's happening until it's happened.

This is the policy of the federal government on reporting news of the election. Next Tuesday there will be a black out of election news until the coast polls are closed. Western voters will not be informed of eastern results until it is too late to put the pressure on the west to change an eastern pattern.

Part of the black-out will be on cablevision.

Don't knock the service, says R.M. Brown, of Salt Spring Cablevision, if the newscast from the United States goes dead.

News services in the United States, not subject to Canadian decrees, will carry election reports. Federal officials have warned cablevision services that they may not carry these newscasts.

Canadian radio, television and news media of all kinds are prohibited from making any premature announcement.

NO THREAT

FULFORD FLOWERS

Cat was among the Fulford pigeons last week when report from the Salt Spring Island Chamber of Commerce was circulated.

Flower boxes are to be removed, the chamber was told.

Fulford residents who have spent years tending the flower boxes were, very properly, outraged. The Fulford community tends the boxes and generally cleans up the approach to the wharf.

By Thursday morning Fulford residents were pressing the B.C. Ferry Authority for further information. Why was it to be done? When?

Slowly the information came to light.

Report originated from the remark of an unauthorized spokesman, DRIFTWOOD was told.

The flower boxes are safe and there is no plan for their removal.

HE IS AWARE OF FEDERAL ELECTION

Island driver reports that he is well aware of the impending national election. Driving through the suburbs of Victoria, the islander met a cavalcade of vehicles led by police escort with flashing lights.

Obediently, he pulled over to the side of the road to let the political party go by.

ADDRESS ON SUNDAY

Address at St. George's Anglican Church on Sunday will be given by Sir Philip Livingston in the absence of Archdeacon R. B. Horsefield.

Sir Philip will speak of "Discord".

Archdeacon G. W. Holmes will take the service and Lieut. Col. D. G. Crofton will read the lesson.

POLICE STAFF CHANGE

Change in personnel of the RCMP detachment at Salt Spring Island will take place in August. Cpl. F. C. Rhodes, who has been here for the past four years will assume new duties with the detachment at Revelstoke on August 1.

His office at Ganges will be taken over by Cpl. Vernon Myers. Cpl. Rhodes came to the islands from Cloverdale. During his term here he has been active with the Salt Spring Island Lions Club and has contributed to junior roller hockey.

In addition to a concern for sports, Cpl. Rhodes has been an active member of the church of Our Lady of Grace and is presently serving as chairman of the parish council.

Mrs. Rhodes has also been well known in the community during their stay here.

Island voters

Bars and liquor stores will be closed on Tuesday and the Salt Spring Island Cablevision will blank out news services from the United States.

It is election day.

Islanders will be faced with the choice of a member from four candidates.

Seeking the Nanaimo-Cowichan-Islands seat are COLIN CAMERON (NDP) JEFFERY BROCK (Conservative) LORNE LEE (Social Credit) MLADEN ZORKIN (Liberal)

All candidates have visited the islands during the campaign and all islanders have enjoyed the opportunity of learning their plans and platforms.

The islands are part of the Vancouver Island riding whose largest centre is Nanaimo.

Mr. Cameron has held the seat for the past three parliaments. A veteran of public life, he has been an elected member, on and off, mostly on, for the past 31 years.

Mr. Cameron was first elected to the provincial legislature in 1937. He held his seat until 1945. Upon defeat he returned to private life and worked in the Har-mac mills and other industries.

In 1953 he turned his attention to the national scene and was elected to the House of Commons. In 1957 he retained his seat and in 1958 he fell by the wayside when the nation followed John and the Diefenbaker Conservatives went to Ottawa with a record support.

In 1962 he recovered the seat from W. F. Mathews and has been in Ottawa since.

He is the New Democratic spokesman on economic affairs.

CONSERVATIVE

Rear Admiral Jerrery Brock resigned from his senior office in the Royal Canadian Navy when he was at odds with the Liberal Government's armed forces program under the then defence minister, Paul Hellyer. He went into hibernation for more than a year.

Native of Vancouver, he has spent his later years in every part of the country. While employed in Vancouver before the Second World War he commanded the Naval Reserve. Following the

DEPARTMENT ALREADY DOING IT

PEDESTRIANS ARE HOME FREE

Road from the Pioneer Village in Ganges to the commercial community will be widened. Part of the work is already under way.

Last week the Salt Spring Island Chamber of Commerce looked back on the problems of constructing a sidewalk and the lack of any provision for walking.

While the chamber was hearing of what could not be done, the department was already considering what could be done.

The road is to be widened and adequate provision will be made for the residents of the village to reach Ganges.

Roads Superintendent J. W. Morris, at Nanaimo, reports that the yellow lines can be provided where necessary in order to afford added protection to pedestrians.

GRADUATION CEREMONIES WEDNESDAY

Division manager of the B. C. Telephone Co., G. F. Auchinleck will be the guest speaker on Wednesday evening June 26, when 36 students graduate from Gulf Islands Secondary School.

Ceremony will take place in the school.

Saludictorian will be Mary Alice Coels and valedictoria, Janice McMillan.

Rev. E. W. MacQuarrie will make the invocation.

WHARF REPAIRS AT FULFORD

Work is already under way at Fulford federal government wharf as an April contract goes ahead.

Pacific Piledriving Company Ltd., of Victoria, was awarded a $33,447 contract for wharf repairs.

Tenders were opened April 18, and the successful bid was the lowest of four received, the highest being $45,950.

The superstructure on the 40 by 80 foot wharfhead and a 90 foot section of the approach are to be renewed under the contract. A new pontoon-supported float, measuring nine by 120 feet, will also be installed.

Plans and specifications were prepared in the Vancouver offices of the federal Department of Public Works. Supervision will be provided by W. W. Ryan, Director.

537-5553MESSAGE FROM
NATIONAL CHAPTER
FOR I.O.D.E. HERE

"The keynote of the IODE should be diversity and flexibility" was the message brought from the Order's National Chapter's 68th annual meeting to HMS Ganges Chapter, by provincial president, Mrs. K. H. Bancroft of Vancouver. Mrs. Bancroft was guest of honour at the chapter's annual luncheon meeting, held in Harbour House Hotel, June 7.

The charter of the Order is to be opened in 1970 for review and possible revision, said Mrs. Bancroft. Suggestions for changes in the constitution will be welcomed by National Chapter. Speaking of the future of the Order Mrs. Bancroft asked: "Where are we going? What should we do?"

The outstanding work of IODE is in the field of education, Mrs. Bancroft noted. This extends from the level of each primary chapter to the international scene, and covers a wide scope. Scholarships for study at overseas universities have been increased to $5000 each from $3000, and scholarships for study in Canada are now $3000 instead of $2000. Support of traffic safety education is one of the recent moves made by the Order in the field of education.

The story of IODE, its history, aims and work will be presented on television said Mrs. Bancroft.

Standing vote of thanks was given to Mrs. O. L. Stanton and Mrs. Gordon Crosby, conveners of the highly successful Arts and Crafts Fair recently presented by the chapter. Treasurer Mrs. Ed. Richardson reported gross receipts from the project totalled $373.

Vote of thanks was also given to educational secretary Mrs. George Wells, for her work with the IODE essay contest held for local school children. Mrs. Wells said good work was done by students; essays were interesting and well researched. She hopes to make it possible to share the essays with all Salt Spring Island residents.

Mrs. Wells said an invitation to visit Salt Spring Island has been extended to Mrs. Alice Bobronik, teacher of the chapter's adopted school at Quilchena B.C.

Services convener Mrs. Grant Cruickshank reported eight nursery bags have been filled and sent for use in overseas hospitals, and four more will follow shortly. Clothing and jewellery brought to the meeting will be taken to Obviously Cpl. Fred Rhodes will be selling his boat before he leaves for Revelstoke. He will need the money to buy skis. From a summer resort to a winter sports centre - some people never lose.

Coincidences sometimes happen. Like the Liberal candidate in the next week's election having married in England during the war and the Conservative candidate also being married to an Englishwoman he met there. Less of a coincidence, but of interest is the fact that while Colin Cameron very ably carries the New Democrat banner through the riding, his nephew, Gil Humphreys is precursor among the islands for Liberal Mladen Zorkin. Raccoon in Ganges escaped destruction because Sunday was Father's Day. When raucous crows in the C.A. Buckley garden on McPhillips became even more raucous, Mrs. Buckley investigated. At the top of the tree was a raccoon and at the bottom of the tree was the Buckley family dog. First proposal was to shoot the predator. "No," said Mrs. Buckley. "It's Father's Day and he may be a father!" So they let him get away. Even if the family was not sold on the raccoon, the crows were less so. They didn't like him up there at all said Mrs. Buckley.

Little more on long distance telephone calls according to a Galiano Islander. When a call came through by mistake from Georgia, an indignant voice with a southern accent enquired "Where the hell is Galiano?" The immediate response was "Where the hell is Georgia?" Both parties were the wiser for their exchange.

All this talk about telephones brings to light the real meaning of direct distance dialling. If you have bugs in your long-distance calling try D.D.D., says the company.

Some people just can't win. Like a reporter who is bailed out because the reader doesn't like what the speaker says. The flower boxes are at Fulford to stay. But how do we spell Fulford Harbour? Like Fulford Harbor in the schedules or Fulford Harbor on the road sign? And DRIFTWOOD didn't spell it that way.

Coincidences again! Gordon Simmons pulled up stakes last week and left the duplex on Drake Road. New occupants of the duplex are Mr. and Mrs. Hector Gerow. They knew Gordon in the north of the province some years ago.

Reg Taylor has a weary cactus plant. For the past seven years it has been building up for the big year. This year was its flow-

Riverview Hospital for the womens apparel shop, she said. Covers were laid for 29 at the luncheon. The number included several guests brought by members. The visiting ladies were welcomed by regent Mrs. F.K. Parkes. Corsages made by Mrs. Laurie Mouat were presented to Mrs. Bancroft, Mrs. Parker and Mrs. Stanton.

Chapter meetings have been suspended for the summer and will resume September 6.

DIOCESAN PRESIDENT ADDRESSES CHURCH
WOMEN AT GANGES AFTER MEETING

Mrs. F. C. Rhodes, president of the Catholic Women's League at Ganges introduced the guest speaker Mrs. L. Shelling, of Chemainus, Diocesan president of the League at the membership tea held in Our Lady of Grace Church Hall.

Mrs. Shelling spoke on the 21st convention held in Whitehorse, Yukon.

Tea was served by the tea hostess Mrs. C.H. Horel and helpers. Other guests from Chem-ainus, were Mrs. J. Gibberson and Mrs. M. O. Shea.

ering year and surely enough, on Friday, out came the bloom. Sticking out on a long stem and defying any normal pattern of floral beauty the flower opened and showed itself. Two days later the plant was worn out, says Reg. The bloom withered and died and the cactus settled down to another seven years of hard work producing its next blossom.

Gordon Simmons has gone to Vancouver. For the past year Mr. and Mrs. Simmons lived on Drake Road and quietly enjoyed island living. To fill in the long evenings Gordon presented movies three evenings a week. Now he doesn't. The retired couple have gone back to Vancouver to live among old friends in familiar settings. Mr. and Mrs. Simmons will be missed by their bridge partners here. They will be missed mostly by the dwindling theatre audiences.

Island life lends new interpretations to old customs. One little chap whose father works on the local ferries lost his first tooth the other day. Now he is proudly showing the quarter to visitors, saying: "Look at the money Daddy's boat gave me."

WHITHER CANADA?

On Tuesday several million voters will go to the polls from the Atlantic to the Pacific and they will settle the pattern of Canadian life and policies.

After an election campaign almost as quiet as the pre-election period was noisy, the die will be cast by the ballots.

Three parties could conceivably form the government, but the next government will undoubtedly be formed by one of two.

In the running in almost every riding are the incumbent Liberals, the Progressive Conservatives and the New Democratic Party. Running a token race in many ridings are the Social Credit party, with Creditistes nominated largely in French ridings.

For islanders there is little local picture. The Nanaimo-Cowichan-Islands riding is dominated by Nanaimo interests and islanders are offered little beyond proposals that benefit the Hub City.

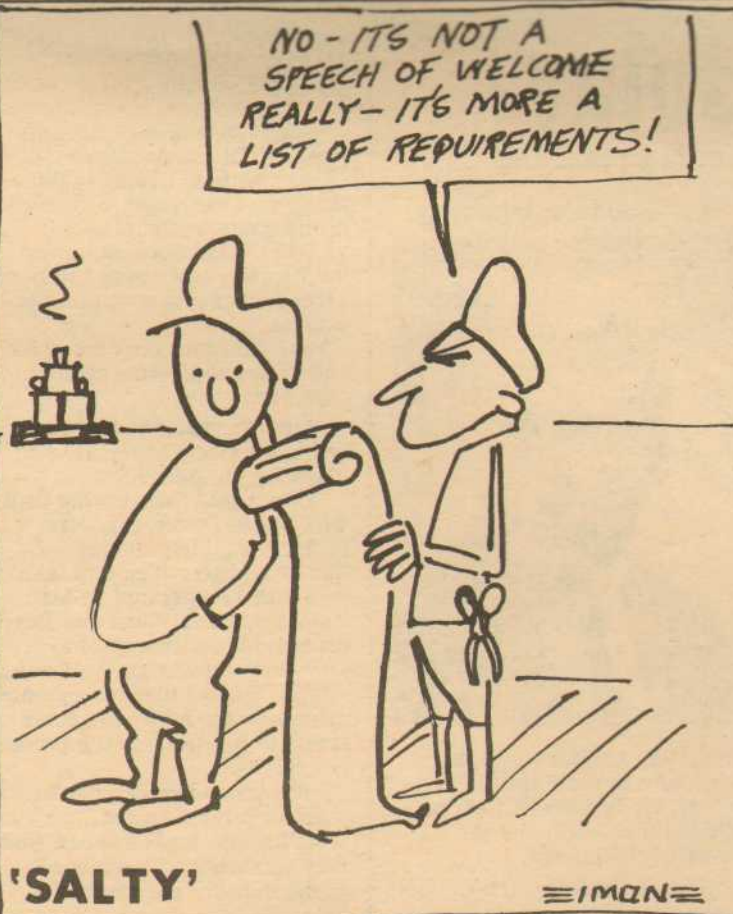

Four candidates will appear on local ballots. Voters will be invited to choose between Colin Cameron, New Democrat who has held the seat for several years, and a representative of the Liberals, Progressive Conservatives and Social Credit.

Incumbent Colin Cameron is the fiery New Democrat who wrested the seat several years ago from Tory Mr. W.F. Mathews. Veteran of provincial and federal campaigns for many years, Mr. Cameron is the only contestant from the Socialist ranks. He offers prosperity through planned economy and expressed little confidence in the economic future unless the present Liberal government is replaced by his own party. Mr. Cameron has been particularly critical of Prime Minister Pierre Trudeau, during his campaign.

With his eye on the earlier Tory holding of the seat, Rear-Admiral Jeffery Brock has come west to contest the seat on behalf of the Conservatives. Vigorous opponent of the Liberal government's handling of the armed forces, Admiral Brock resigned from his senior rank and withdrew to quiet private life when he quarrelled with former Defence Minister Paul Hellyer. Admiral Brock has repeatedly asserted that a vote for the N.D.P. is a vote for minority government, on the grounds that of the three top parties, the N.D.P. cannot hope to form the next government. Therefore, contends Admiral Brock, an N.D.P. vote is a vote for minority government.

Identified in all his election campaign material with Prime Minister Pierre Elliott Trudeau is Dr. Mladen Zorkin. Prominent Nanaimo realtor with a scholarly background, Dr. Zorkin is vitally concerned with his home city. He is also confident that the entire national economy is destined to establish itself on the west coast much as the United States has looked constantly to its Pacific coast.

Lorne Lee is the Social Credit spokesman for the campaign. An ultra-right wing spokesman he explains that he fears a dictatorship in Canada and has sought the federal seat in an effort to combat the possibility.

The national picture is less readily sorted out as Admiral Brock sees in Mr. Trudeau a budding Socialist, while Mr. Cameron finds him too Conservative.

Interest here in the unit of Canada has been light. On the coast Canada is one nation and eastern concern loses its strength with travelling.

Internal problems of shortage of homes, national economy and to a limited degree, medicare, have been debated, but the campaign here, among the islands, has been a campaign of personalities among the nation's leaders with only mild emphasis on the meaning of the election to Canadians.

The Social Credit and Creditiste, separate, yet linked, are fielding too small a force to hope to gain the leadership of the nation. The New Democrats, fielding a full force, have little hope of forming a government. Left are the two main parties, both with new blood running through their veins.

Here, as in many parts of Canada, the choice facing voters is basically a Stanfield-Trudeau battle. Yet it is more than likely that in spite of Admiral Brock's warning, the riding will accept the likelihood of a minority government and that Mr. Cameron will take his seat again in the next parliament, speaking loudly and clearly from the opposition benches.

Letters to the Editor

HE AGREES
Editor, Driftwood.

I would like to say I approve of the people in Ganges who have refused to serve customers who are hippies, or act and look like hippies.

People on Salt Spring have a right to decide how they wish things to go here.

People are most tolerant of most things here, but anything that is detrimental to the Island and against what other people are working towards is after a time going to meet with some vigorous opposition.

It seems that it is too easy to get on welfare these days and it is the taxpayers' money that is paying for all this.

NOT ALLIES, PLEASE!
Editor, Driftwood.

I note one of our candidates wishes to make us allies of the U.S. in its war against the Vietnamese people in alliance with a puppet government of their own creation which would perpetuate slavery there.

He would make us allies of a country where government by assassination is practised, where they slew a president who had begun to consider peace; where the people are turning against the government in ever-increasing numbers. Let us rather welcome refugees from the U.S.A.

Dr. Mladen Zorkin has a colorful background.

Originally from Yugoslavia, he practiced law after gaining his doctorate at the University of Zagreb. During the Second World War he served with the British forces in the Italian theatre.

Following the war he served with the War Crimes Commission in London and was later maritime law adviser for Lloyd's of London.

In 1946 he undertook a lecture tour of Canada and completed his engagement in Nanaimo. There he stayed.

With little money and no immediate prospects, he dug in and ultimately went into business. Since 1948 he has been in real estate.

He is an active community worker in Nanaimo.

Lorne Lee entered the political arena later than his colleagues. Carpenter by trade, he is vitally conscious of the dangers of the extreme left-wing political groups and has entered the campaign in an effort to combat these influences.

with Mrs. O. Inkster. They are spending the summer chartering their ketch Ta'aroa in the Gulf Island waters.

Members of the Galiano Club are to be congratulated on the splendid clean-up effort at the Community Hall. Under the direction of Mrs. Les Walton, parties of volunteer workers have completely redecorated the interior of the hall and the window drapes have been dry cleaned. Flowers in the new cedar boxes flanking the entrance also make a pleasing display.

On June 12 the members of the Ladies Service Club held their last meeting of the season and afternoon tea in the garden of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Turner.

EIGHT CHILDREN BAPTIZED AT GALIANO CHURCH SUNDAY AFTERNOON

The Church of St. Margaret's of Scotland, Galiano Island, was filled to capacity last Sunday afternoon when eight local children received the rite of Holy Baptism by Rev. Horace Dunster.

The church had been decorated with flowers for the occasion and the vases on the altar were filled with huge red and white gladioluses given by Mr. and Mrs. C.E. Morshead in memory of their parents.

Mrs. G. Philippon was organist and the hymns were "Loving shepherd of thy sheep", "Jesus bids us shine", "In token that thou shalt not fear" and "Blest be the tie that binds". The older girls wore white Acting as co-hostess for the occasion was Mrs. Turner's sister, Mrs. Christie.

The membership voted to pay from their funds the cost of cleaning of the Vicarage and the annual spring clean up of the local Church. They will not meet again until September when they will plan their winter program.

An emergency meeting of the congregation of St. Margaret's Church was held last Thursday evening in the local hall. It was called by the wardens for the purpose of planning a new financing program. The Vicarage is to be rented until a resident minister for the parish can be found and immediate repairs are required to the vestry roof. The church's oil furnace gave out several months ago and it was agreed to install electric heating. This will have to be paid for from a special fund now organically dresses and white gloves with white flowers in their hair, and the little boys wore immaculate white shirts and dark trousers. The only baby in the group wore a traditional christening gown.

Baptized were Nola Christine and Erin Joan, the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Ken Sater. Their Godparents were Mrs. M. E. Backlund, Annie and Norman Paddon and Evelyn and Gerald Paddon.

Six sons and daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Wilson were also baptized. They were Janice Kasey Patricia, Eva Marie Rose, Rodrick Charles, Gina Lynn, Robert Harold, and Ronald William. Among the large number of godparents for these children were the following Galiano friends and relatives: Mr. and Mrs. Albert Head, Henry Head, John Hawthorne, Mrs. B. Stallybrass, Mrs. Tom Head, Mrs. Sophia Rustad, Mrs. M. E. Backlund, Archie Georgeson, George Head, Charles Head and Tom Carolan.

Following the service the congregation held a reception for the children and their godparents in the Galiano Hall.

It too was decorated for the occasion with summer flowers, arrangements being handled by members of the Ladies service Club. The children sat at their own table which was centred by a large cake baked and decorated by "Uncle Billie" Cottrell, and flanked by tall pink taper candles.

Mrs. I. A. Murphy and Mrs. Stanley Page presided at the tea table.

Rev. Dunster brought members of his family and a group of friends with him to the island for the day and they enjoyed a brief sight seeing tour before leaving on the evening ferry.

Miss Jean Lockwood, who was asked to chair the meeting, agreed to head the heating fund campaign, assisted by other members of the Church Comm-

The congregation also elected Fred Mallett as assistant treasurer and Mrs. J. Hume to serve as archivist for the island church.

"How many papers do you send out each week?"

Almost every visitor to DRIFTWOOD, or to any other newspaper, asks this question. But it is not only visitors to DRIFTWOOD who ask the question. It is the advertiser who wants to announce his message to the readers and the reader, who is indirectly interested.

There are two ways of counting. The publisher can count all his subscribers and write down the total. That gives the exact number of papers going out. But the enquirer may want to make a comparison with another paper in the community he used to live in. Does the publisher there use the same method of counting? How can you have more than one way of counting, anyway?

Well, for example, does your list include only readers who have paid in advance for their paper? If the publisher states that he has 2,000 readers, he is not explaining whether they have all paid. Some may have paid five years ago and he does n't like to lose them because they were nice people. But the subscription expired.

The reader who bought a subscription bought it because he wants to read it.

Even the reader has to be interested in this question. Suppose he walks in and orders a subscription. As he leaves the office, or store, he turns round and says, out of curiosity, "What's your circulation?" The clerk coughs nervously and explains with some diffidence, "Well...as a matter of fact...you're the first to buy a paper."

The reader feels that he has stuck his neck out.

Even if he finds that 100 others are readers, he still wonders whether he hasn't been very unwise in becoming No. 101. If he knows that lots of people, or like DRIFTWOOD, most people, read it, he decides that he has gained by others' experience.

This week, to make the reader feel better, to make the advertiser feel better and to make the publisher feel better, DRIFTWOOD announces that it is now a member of the Audit Bureau of Circulations. This means that the publisher contributes to the maintenance of an international audit service to guarantee his circulation figures.

In return for the membership of the bureau an accountant calls at DRIFTWOOD office every two years. He goes through every figure furnished by the publisher and analyzes it. If the publisher announces that he has 1,500 readers and the auditor can only prove 1,400, every advertiser subscribing to the bureau is formally told of the error. This ensures that the publisher makes no claim he cannot prove.

In some communities the circulation record represents a serious problem to the publisher. Around the islands this is not evident, because most readers are prompt in paying their subscriptions.

ST. MARY'S LAKE

It sleeps among the encircling warmth of trees,
A placid thing of beautiful design,
A calm and restful atmosphere it breathes,
A melody in every rippling line.

Ah, would that I could keep its pristine air
Untouched by man's destructive, wayward thought,
Its trees the silent guardians of peace,
Majestic splendour Nature's hand hath wrought.

Come, weary traveller, bask upon its shores.
And let its relaxation flood thy soul,
Erasing every troubled doubt or fear,
Its strength be thine, its peaceful hope thy goal.

ANOTHER STRIDE FORWARD

ABC does not recognize any subscription more than three months in arrears and there is no advantage to the publisher in keeping circulation going after that lapse.

ABC serves the advertiser and the reader, because it demands that the publisher be on his toes to keep up as high a standard as he can in order to avoid any loss of readership.

In future the ABC emblem will appear on the masthead of DRIFTWOOD.

TEA RAISES $147 FOR PROJECTS SPONSORED BY EASTERN STAR IN BRITISH COLUMBIA

Successful garden tea was held by the members of the Order of the Eastern Star at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Reid.

The sum of $147 was realized. The tea was opened by Mrs. Sam Hindmarch, of Ladysmith, after being introduced by Miss M. Corbett, the Worthy Matron.

The money raised will do much in helping the members of Trincomali Chapter to do their share in supporting the projects of the Eastern Star in B.C.

Some of these projects are the buying of needed equipment for the provincial Cancer Institute and the maintenance of the institute machine shop, as well as Cancer dressing stations which provide free dressings to all in B.C. who request them.

The Order has committed itself to raising $40,000 in the coming year to provide needed equipment at the Cancer Institute. A $7,000 Shane fellowship award is provided yearly to a doctor for Cancer research. Each year the Order provides several large scholarships through the Elizabeth Bentley fund for higher education as well as maintaining a fund for Eastern Star Training Awards for Religious Leadership.

In the past Salt Spring Island has had two recipients of awards. Dr. David Boyes won the first Shane Fellowship Award to be provided for cancer research and Miss Darlene Marcotte was the recipient of a scholarship award.

We are expecting visitors from Vancouver, Victoria and Nanaimo and we hope that our fellow club, the Salt Spring Squares will also join us at these dances. Square dancers from any area are most welcome and we are very pleased to see spectators.

TAXES UP!

BUT CHAIRMAN EXPLAINS

Reports of tax notices bearing notification of tax increases this year have flooded into the office of chairman George Heinekey of Gulf Islands School District. Mr. Heinekey has made the following announcement in order to clarify the picture.

There have been many enquiries regarding the upward move of taxes in the Gulf Islands, and particularly in the area of the increase in school taxes.

The Gulf Island citizens are no doubt under the impression that the increase in school taxes reflects the increase in school costs in the Gulf Islands themselves.

Perhaps it should be pointed out that the school taxes are based on the total costs of all 87 school districts in the Province, and distributed by the means of what the 'Public Schools Act' calls the "equalization factor", which means that the cost of the 87 districts are charged on a computed ratio basis to every single district, even in the rural districts.

There is perhaps an anomaly here, but it is the fact and it is the law.

To particularize, it may be shown that in 1967 the basic mill rate across the Province was 16.10 whereas this year it is 24.30 - an increase of 8.20 mills.

Gulf Islands charges have not increased by the extent of 8.20 but by 4.63 mills.

It will therefore be seen that the upward trend of school taxes in the Gulf Islands is only slightly more than half of the upward trend in some of the other 86 districts.

It should also be pointed out that the Gulf Islands total mill rate is 30.45 whereas the average mill rate for the Province is 31.21.

FIRST COMMUNIONS AT CATHOLIC CHURCH IN GANGES

Fifteen children of Our Lady of Grace Catholic Church made their first communion on Sunday.

The children had previously received catechetical instruction under the direction of Rev. Chas. Brandt, Mrs. G. Woodley and teachers, Marcel Blais, Y. and Y. Blais, J. Girard and others.

After Communion the C.W.L. Ladies served breakfast to the children and muffins and coffee to the parents and friends.

Those making their Communion were P. and C. Taylor, A. Wilson, G. R. and W. Hagan, W. Horel, A. Blais, L. Rhodes, D. and D. Woodley, B. Marcotte, P. O'Donnell and T. and R. Dixon.

FERNWOOD

BY JESSIE SAYER

Mr. and Mrs. Gwennup, of New Westminster, are spending a holiday at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Butler-Cole.

We extend a welcome to our new neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. William Pettipiece, of New Westminster who bought the former Foster home on North Beach Road.

Mrs. E. Burr and Mrs. Kyte enjoyed a bus tour to the Portland Rose Festival. The tour included various points of interest and the travellers were well cared for.

Mrs. K. Taylor is very proud to have two beautiful white flowers on a cactus plant that seems to bloom every seven years.

RICK SAUNDERS WAS NOT MISSED BY HOCKEY GROUP

BY BEA HAMILTON

At the Roller Hockey Awards presentations last week, Rick Saunders name was omitted unintentionally.

He was presented with the Player's Appreciation award, which was held by Mike Byron last year.

"Rick was always ready to act as referee when needed and in any other capacity. His willingness and guidance to the boys has been appreciated," said Mike Byron as the presentation was made by May Queen Carol to Mr. Saunders, on Hockey Night in the Hall.

"They are a great bunch of boys," said Rick. He had enjoyed working with them all" and never had better friends. He hopes the boys will carry on being good sports as well as good citizens. He also hopes to see the boys at hockey next year.

LEGION LADIES HEAR ADDRESS BY PRESIDENT OF NANAIMO ZONE

The monthly general meeting of Ladies Auxiliary to Branch 92, Royal Canadian Legion was held in the Legion Hall, June 11.

Mrs. Johnson, Nanaimo Zone president, and a guest were present. Mrs. Johnson addressed the meeting and gave a very instructive talk on L.A. procedure as laid down by the L.A. to Pacific Command. She was given a hearty vote of thanks by all the members.

Mrs. C. W. Archer, president of the L.A. gave an excellent report on the Dominion convention held in Penticton recently. Mrs. Archer was very impressed by the work and activities carried on by the Legion across Canada and said the L.A.'s received their fair share of credit from the veterans.

GARDENS LOVELY

BY BEA HAMILTON

It was a delightful scene at the beautiful gardens of Mr. and Mrs. P.G. James on Wednesday afternoon.

People wandered around the garden, drinking in the sight of the flowers with hot cups of coffee, for this was a coffee party, sponsored by the ladies of St. Nicholas' Guild, and a nice job they made of it.

Only thing missing was the sun but even so, it was up there playing peek-a-boo with thunder clouds that never quite managed to dampen the party with rain. A few drops threatened, then thought better of it.

Mrs. R.B. Horsefield and Mrs. R. T. Meyer, Mr. and Mrs. James all received the guests at the rose covered corner of the garden. The Rector and Archdeacon G.H. Holmes and Mrs. Holmes were also present. So were many others.

Mrs. H. Minchin and Mrs. R. T. Cook were tea conveners, and busy pouring at a decorated table in the house, were Mrs. C. Springford, Mrs. M. Carlyle, Mrs. A.D. Dane, Mrs. E. Graham and Mrs. Phyll Newman.

Other members of the Guild were circulating amongst the people in the garden, carrying trays of coffee and food.

The party lasted from 11 am to 2 pm. At 3 pm it was pouring down in a thunder shower. Must live right up there in Vesuvius way.

How much did they make in the way of cash? Not as much as last year but it wasn't bad - they took in the sum of $131.44.

It was a very enjoyable garden party.....

ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

SOFTBALL (GIRLS)

Salt Spring 27
Alexander 13

Salt Spring girls hit powerfully to overcome the Duncan School after getting over an attack of first inning nerves, when they went behind 5 - 0. The girls fielded well, backing up some fine pitching by Heather Frazer. The big hitters for Salt Spring were Barbara Byron, Cathy Crawchuk and Linda Byron. Debbie Van Dack was particularly outstanding at first base.

SOFTBALL (GIRLS)

Salt Spring 18
Mt. Brenton 9

Salt Spring girls won their second game by defeating a strong Mt. Brenton team which, however, could not cope with the speed or control of Heather Frazer's pitching. The whole team hit well and Cathy Roland ran between bases particularly well. The team did not field as well as usual and all of Mt. Brenton's runs came on nervous errors by the infielders. Only Linda Byron (catcher) and Jo-Ann Hartwig (3rd base) of the infield were steady throughout, both showing a good arm and collecting some real catches.

BOYS

Salt Spring 11
Mt. Brenton 1

Salt Spring boys won their first game of the season by defeating Mt. Brenton 11 to 1. The addition of Richard Kitchen helped the local team as he pitched four shutout innings and later made some great plays at first base. The rest of the team played very well also and Mt. Brenton did not score until the last inning.

SOFTBALL (GIRLS)

Salt Spring 16
Alexander School 9
(Duncan)

Salt Spring girls completed the double over the Duncan School on the strength of their superior fielding. In the hitting department Linda and Barbara Byron and Cathy Roland were consistently good whilst the base running of the whole team was excellent. The real difference between the teams, however, was the in fielding and here Linda Byron, Pamela Webster and particularly Debbie Van Dack were stand-outs. Some of the catches and stops by Debby Van Dack at first base were superb and gave a lift to the whole team. Heather Frazer pitched her third straight win giving up hits in only 2 of the 5 innings.

BOYS

Salt Spring 10
Alexander 5

Salt Spring boys evened their series with Alexander by defeating them in a well played game last Tuesday. The game was very close until the sixth inning when Salt Spring scored four runs to go ahead 10 - 5. The outstanding player again was Richard Kitchen who pitched and fielded very steadily throughout. Good fielding plays also were turned in by Murray Brown and Bob Olsen while the hitting of Paddy Taylor and Brian Stevens helped gain the win.

FULFORD

Fulford news?

Not this week. Not from yours truly, anyway. I shall be in Vancouver attending the Press Club Tri-ennial celebrations at the Vancouver Hotel and will be meeting the Japanese consul-general, Tomohiko Kambora, who entertains us Japanese-style on night-Saturday, I think. Reception for far-off Press members will be Friday night. Then Sunday, we go on a cruise around Vancouver Harbour with brunch on board.

Dinner in Chinatown another night, all these things are courtesy of other organizations or companies, thank goodness. "Come West to meet the East" is the CWPC slogan this year - so we'll meet the East in spite of the fact that they said "Ne'er the twain shall meet...."

MAYNE

BY ELSIE BROWN

The Queen of the Islands was filled to capacity Wednesday morning when two bus loads of passengers boarded the ferry at Tsawwassen for a tour of the islands. The caravan consisted of members of the Parish Guild, St. Helen's Anglican Church, Vancouver, and the United Church Women of Dunbar United, also of Vancouver. They were a gay crowd and matched the weather, which was sunny and warm, and all looking forward to their outing. Tour Counsellor, Heather Dougan, was on hand to give information and distribute pamphlets on points of interest. Heather is also known as SeaGull No. 6 - a very charming representative of B.C. Ferries.

Attending the Gulf Islands Branch of the B.C. Historical Society meeting on Friday at Saturna were five ladies from Mayne - Mrs. C. Merrill, Mrs. Annie DeRousie, Mrs. Meg Drummond, Miss Wendy Carter and Elsie Brown. All other islands were well represented.

After a short business meeting chaired by Pres. Mr. Donald New, we were given a very interesting account of the Museum Program by two recent graduates of Vancouver City College, Mrs.

May Loutit and Miss Louise Hazel.

The Museum Program is designed to provide training in display and the basics of conservation, together with an introduction to museum philosophy and functions. We were given a resume of some of the requirements of the course and a description of one of their displays at Simon Fraser University. Refreshments were served by Saturna Island ladies among whom were Mrs. Littler, Mrs. Jim Campbell and Mrs. J. Dangerfield - sorry I didn't get the names of the men folk assisting. "Uncle" Art Ralph on hand looking hale and hearty. Thanks very much for a most enjoyable afternoon.

Spending her holidays on the island is Miss Wendy Carter of West Vancouver. She has been staying at Mrs. Stott's summer home at Deer Meadow and has been exploring the island on foot. She is very impressed by the friendliness of island folk and we hope she makes a return visit real soon.

Congratulations to Jim and Betty Ross who celebrated their 26th Wedding Anniversary Saturday at Mayne Inn (former Arbutus Lodge). They were entertained by members of the family which included daughter and son-in-law, Leslie and Doug DeRousie, daughter Barbara, Betty's parents Bill and Marguerite Morson and the Doug Foremans of North Vancouver. The Foremans are guests of the Morsons at Cherry Tree Bay this week end.

Mrs. Annie De Rousie, Miners Bay, in company with sister, Mrs. Pete Georgeson of Victoria visited another sister and her husband Mr. and Mrs. N. Olsen of Price, Utah recently. Mrs. Olsen returned with them and spent a short holiday on the island with the DeRousies.

Visiting Mrs. Nancy Jones, Horton Bay Road, recently was Mrs. Jessie Copeland of Victoria. Visiting the Stan Carpenters, Bennett Bay, are their young grandchildren Kathy, Susan and Louis from San Juan, Puerto Rico. Kay flew down for them recently. Later their parents, Dr. and Mrs. L. Soltero - Harrington and their two other children will be arriving to spend their holidays with the Carpenters on the island.

W. Barron of "The Boulders", Miners Bay, has returned from an extensive trip which took him to Ottawa. Other places visited in Ontario included Newmarket where he attended the wedding of his grandson, Peter Barron, Hometown Fonthill, Ont. was also visited and Niagara Falls (no he didn't accompany the newlyweds). A meal was enjoyed at the Revolving Restaurant (similar to the Space Needle) and Mr. Barron says you need a compass if you leave your table at any time. Daughter-in-law, Mrs. Charlie Barron has been attending a family re-union in Saskatchewan. Debbie expects to leave on a visit to Germany with her grandmother and Don who has been attending Salt Spring Island Secondary School will be working in Victoria this summer.

Welcome to new property owners at Village Bay, Mr. and Mrs. D.R. Baldry of North Vancouver. They have been spending the week end in their trailer.

Also over for the day were new property owners at Cherry Tree Place, the Jerry Dunns of Vancouver. With them were the Soole family and the Carson family.

Over to their island homes last week end were the Roy Mc Leods of Campbell Bay; Gwen Hayball, Horton Bay; the Al Patchetts, Bayview Drive; the Moffatts, Gallagher Bay. All the regulars were over judging from the lineup at the Village Bay dock Sunday evening.

BROWNIES

FLY-UP AT BANQUET

The wind up of the year's activities for the 1st Salt Spring Island Brownie Pack was the "Mother and daughter banquet" held in St. George's Hall last week.

Thirty Brownies and mothers were present; also special guests were Mrs. R. B. Horsefield who said grace; Mrs. Eleanor Deacon, and four Guide patrol leaders.

The supper tables were attractive and original with bowls of wild flowers consisting of white daisies, red clover, and buttercups.

Following the banquet a ceremony of enrolment took place by Brown Owl when six "Tweens" were enrolled. They were Christine Lacey, Paddy Olsen, Catherine Ackerman, Barbara Watson, Wendy Reedes, and Bernie Parsey. Five brownies presented with proficiency badges were Valerie Knowles, collector's badge Margo Young and Janet Lacey, writers badge; Becky Hagan and Wendy Horel, cyclist badges.

In the Fly-up ceremony five girls flew up from Brownies to Guides and were presented with the golden hand and wings badges; they were Janet Lacey, Becky Hagan, Valerie Knowles, Marie Jane Olsen, and Serena Kaye.

Brownies will resume meetings in September after the summer holidays.

DAMAGE WAS ONLY $75

Damage caused to the cars involved in a recent accident on Fulford-Ganges Road was earlier reported at $175.

The figure was high. DRIFTWOOD was told that estimates on the repairs to Ed Hamer's car after a minor collision on Fulford Ganges Road recently amounted to $75.
