MOLOTOV COCKTAILS AT GALIANO

UNRULY YOUTHS PLAGUE PARKS

— RESIDENTS ASK FOR CLOSING OF MOUAT PARK

Molotov cocktails, property damage and near-riot were among the highlights of the holiday week end on Galiano and Salt Spring Islands.

Despite the assistance of an additional police car and two constables from Victoria, two auxiliary police officers, the Mouat Park Superintendent and police officers from the marine detachment, the disorder on Salt Spring Island was beyond the capability of the law-enforcement officers.

Several hundred visitors, largely in the age group, 15 to 23, lived it up for three whole days, drinking, carousing and having themselves a time.

By Friday morning the campsites at Montague Park were filled. The overflow went to private property wherever they could find space to lay a sleeping bag. MacMillan Bloedel tree farms were a popular target.

At Ganges the police estimated a crowd of 200 in Mouat Park and better than 100 at Beaver Point.

There was little disturbance on Saturday and only minor annoyances were reported on Friday night in Mouat Park. At Montague Park things were smooth until Monday.

On Saturday night police were called to Mouat Park and while they were investigating the uproar, the patrol car was damaged by campers.

Throughout Sunday the patrols were maintained.

On Monday afternoon a small number of off-island customers caused a scuffle in the Harbour House beer parlour. Beverage room was crowded as one man damaged a chandelier and others wrecked the seats in the toilets. Staff held one man who kicked a waiter in the leg and was subsequently charged with assault.

The beer parlour was closed for the rest of the day.

Ship's Anchor Inn Restaurant suffered from the same unruly

STAIRS HAVE GONE

Big change has been made at Mouat's Store in Ganges. The large, central stairway which has been there almost since George Vancouver sailed past was removed this week.

The two main floors now run the length of the store without a break and customers go up and down at the side of the building.

This week carpenters were still closing in the ceilings and walls.

PARSONS AND BIG FISH

Top man in Salt Spring Island Rod and Gun Club fishing derby on Sunday was Rick Parsons with a salmon weighing in at 13 lbs., 9 ozs. Ladies first went to Chris Stevens and top junior fisherman was Arthur Gale, Jr. in fourth place was Steve Wawryk, followed by Ken Stevens, Jim Spencer, Carol Jackson and Fred Morris.

Largest cod was weighed in on Sunday afternoon by Jan Harkema at 11 lbs., 4 oz. Second cod was caught by Arthur Gale, Sr.

Winners of the draw prizes were Sharon Spriggs, D. K. Crofton and Arthur Gale.

RED CROSS AT FULFORD OVER TOP

Fulford Red Cross drive was over the top again this year. Announcing the accomplishment was Mrs. R. H. Lee, who has headed the campaign on South Salt Spring Island for the past 23 years.

Unruly Youth To Be Debated

Salt Spring Islanders will consider the problem of unruly youth at a meeting on Tuesday night in the Catholic church hall at Ganges.

Meeting is jointly sponsored by the Salt Spring Island Citizens' League, the Salt Spring Island Chamber of Commerce, Salt Spring Island Planning Association and the Salt Spring Island Ratepayers Association.

Island organizations and residents of the Drake Road and Seaview Road area will try to find an answer to the invasion of Salt Spring Island and particularly of Mouat Park.

Attorney-General will be asked to close Mouat Park in an effort to move the centre of unruliness away from the commercial centre of the island.

Meeting will be in the church hall at 8 pm on Tuesday evening. Hugh Curtis, MLA, has been invited to attend, but could not make a firm commitment. He assured Jim Campbell, of the Citizens' League, of his concern and he promised that he would discuss the matter with the Attorney-General this week.

NOBODY INJURED

Truck Charges Through Ganges

Heavily laden tandem dump truck ran down most of Ganges Hill without brakes, charged through Ganges at speeds up to 50 mph, shot past the Bank of Montreal building to come to rest in Mouat's loading yard with the front wheels hanging over the bank, above the beach.

On Thursday morning Jesse Byron, driving Norman Twa's dump truck, applied his brakes at the top of Ganges Hill, only to find that he had lost the air pressure and that they were no longer operative. The young driver had already changed down to third and he concentrated on grasping the gear shift to ensure that the drag on the transmission was not sufficient to throw it out of gear. Blowing his horn all the way down the hill and through Ganges, he kept a clear path.

Three trucks were standing in Mouat's yard and he missed all three as he charged into pallots loaded with concrete bricks.

The driver was shaken but uninjured.

Laden truck was lifted while it was drawn back from the cliff-edge and towed to the parking lot beyond K & R. Later the same day it was driven away after repairs.

Runaway truck ends up hanging over beach at Mouat's yard.

SMOOTH OPERATION SATURDAY

SUN COMES TO GANGES

Morning rain cleared on Saturday to offer a bright and sunny May Day at Ganges and to herald a brilliant holiday week end.

Parade was smaller than last year, with only a handful of commercial entries.

The parade included a pipe band from the Canadian Scottish and enough horses to mount a regiment.

Parade, under the direction of Steve Nelson, moved off from Kanaka Road and Rainbow Road, through Ganges and back via McPhillips Ave. to the school grounds.

New queen, Debbie Wood was crowned by last year's queen Suzette Menzies as the floats drew up on the field. Debbie was accompanied by Eileen Grimmer and Laura Pallot. Master of ceremonies was Gunter Burger.

Following the ceremonies the field was cleared and sports events were run off while the 30 babies entered in the baby show were judged by Dr. W. N. Shofchet, Miss Doris Anderson and Mrs. R. D. McWhirter.

Marathon race, over a short course, was won by Uli Temmel.

School band under the direction of John Dought, played a number of selections.

The school grounds were packed with people during the staging of these events.

Man on the mike was Tony Raynor and Tom Toynbee was feeding him information. On the field Steve Nelson abandoned his parade and took over the children's races.

The side shows around the field kept people coming. TOPS offered low-calorie refreshments and Rod and Gun Club ignored calories. Equally indifferent to calories were the Lions, serving beer and the Rotarians serving baron of beef. Leos offered a coin toss.

Salt Spring Island Riding Club provided pony rides for small children while running off a series of events elsewhere on the same field.

Final event of the afternoon was the tug of war.

May Day is staged by Salt Spring Island Chamber of Commerce, with the support of many community organizations.

May Day winners are listed here:

Overall winner of the parade was the entry of Nelson Marine and Shape-up Shop. Others were, businesses, 1, Ganges Pharmacy; 2, Mouat's; 3, Val-courts; clubs, 1, Salt Spring Lions; 2, Salt Spring Rotary; 3, Salt Spring Rod and Gun.

Decorated bicycles; 1, Kathy Bradley; 2, Donna McFadyen; 3, Kara Cruickshank.

Marathon race; Uli Temmel; 2, Lesley Matthews.

Baby Show: 1, Jane Cunningham ham, six-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Brian Cunningham; 2, George Akerman; 3, Isaac Andre. Winner received a silver cup and second and third won a bank account of $5 and $3, respectively.

to be frank

By Richards

Mabel Davis found this verse and decided it was good advice:

You watch the fellow who drives ahead and the fellow who drives behind,
You watch to the right and you watch to the left,
You drive with a calm, clear mind,
But the fellow you really have to watch on the highway you will find,
It is the fellow behind the fellow low in front and ahead of the fellow behind.

LAUGH-OF-THE-WEEK ..... Telephone user dialled '114' and heard the voice, 'The number you have called is not in service.' Number is the telephone repair service of BC Tel. The caller was already hopping mad at being unable to make a phone call off-island for days. Looks like one of those times when the Chamber of Commerce could get up and start screaming.

Inflation is an odd bedfellow. When we read of the collapse of Germany in the 1920's, the story of uncontrollable inflation is frightening. Yet, when we live through the same conditions, we take them for granted. Nothing is priced on a permanent basis and last week's prices have no bearing on what we'll pay next week. But the oddest thing of all is that most prices and most costs are trailing behind the soaring wages level.

YOUTH AND UPROAR

Too many boys: too many girls: too much beer: not enough supervision: there you have all the ingredients of a first-class, stand-up fight, community disturbance.

There it was on Salt Spring Island this week end. And at Montague Park and in other areas of Galiano

Today there is much disaffection over the holiday uproar. Residents are protesting the changeover of the islands from a peaceful haven to a riot. So many juveniles on Tuesday morning were telling admiring audiences of junior high school colleagues, "We had riots over the week end!" And it is so very, very true!

For the next several weeks islanders will be seeking the answer. What can be done to reduce the incidence of upheaval? They will propose that Mouat Park be closed but this will not correct the situation except for the few unhappy residents in the immediate vicinity of the park.

It is not universal. Some happy kids came to Salt Spring Island for a peaceful holiday. The same unhappy individuals returned to the city, disillusioned.

Not all kids are bad, we are repeatedly told. Not all were bad over the week end, but the effect of the few was a sharp influence on the many.

They can't be stopped from coming. If they are over 19 they can't be prevented from getting a drink.

Closing camps and parks would take the burden off the government, but it would only result in large-scale squatting on private property, which might be even worse.

Ask Mummy and Daddy to look after their own children over the holiday? But Mummy and Daddy are probably living it up while the kids have "gone off somewhere".

There are some obvious factors. We are hopelessly under-policed when such an invasion occurs. We tend to tar every visitor with the same brush.

Essentially, it is more than supervision. The private campsites and resorts on the islands reported a successful holiday week end, with lots of campers and no problems. Supervision was the answer, there. But the problem area is among those who do not come here for a quiet, restful holiday. They are here to stir up the community and themselves at the centre.

This faction is noisy, hidden, impossible to detect and a minority.

In the meantime, there are simply too many around for these small islands. While any of us communicates our disaffection to the government and the attorney-general, pressing for a solution, bear in mind that there is a direct link between the reduction of the age of manhood from 21 to 19 and our problems today.

Everyone told them to drink, but nobody showed them how...and not many know.

Letters To The Editor

THEY LIKE IT SO

Editor, Driftwood,

I would like to draw your attention to an error in your article headed "Committee Tours all Islands" - page 7, second column.

The paragraph begins with... "Driving from North to South Pender, - they were first taken through Magic Lakes subdivision where there are now more than 1,000 lots for sale, around a

CHAPTER SPONSORS CITIZENSHIP DAY AT GANGES SCHOOL

Mrs. G. H. Holmes is seen as she offers the prayer at the Citizenship ceremonies in Ganges on Friday afternoon. Mrs. Holmes was speaking on behalf of the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire whose HMS Ganges Chapter makes an annual presentation to both Ganges elementary school and Gulf Islands Secondary School.

The school band offered the anthems and selections. Mrs. V. C. Best presented the Chapter's donation of a book to the elementary school and Mrs. A. Howell made presentations to secondary school students.

Art scholarship of $25 was awarded to Anna Mollet and two scholarships of $100 for band were given to Debbie Woodley, woodwind and Serena Kaye, brass.

The music scholarships will be used for the Vancouver Island band summer course.

Highlight of the afternoon ceremony at the secondary school was the presentation of pins to Candy Strippers at Lady Minto Hospital.

Magic Lakes subdivision, where I am a permanent resident, has about 1,200 lots, most of which are already sold. These are not around one lake - there are two man-made lakes, about a mile apart.

Besides most of the lots border the shore of the island, as well as the greater number of view and non-view lots. I do not know the exact size of the subdivision, but do know that it extends in length for 1 1/2 miles from the entrance to Thieves' Bay and then along the shore and inland to Shingle Bay.

Perhaps Mary Backlund should get her information correct before submitting the article.

Maybe the lots are small compared to others on the island, but we and most purchasers are satisfied with our properties. At least we who live here permanently can be "caretakers" for absentee home owners in these days when wandering youths think they can "squat" any place.

I, for one, would rather see subdivisions and permanent residents than great expanses of park land, unsupervised, with no water or toilet facilities, and occupied by untidy, drug-taking irresponsible transients who seem to revel in vandalism. A look at Prior Park on North Pender Island, would convince anyone of this fact.

(Mrs. A.) Bertha Matthews, R. R. 1, Port Washington, May 12, 1973.

THEY NEED BLOOD

Editor, Driftwood,

May 1, through the courtesy of Driftwood, bring to the attention to the ladies and gentlemen of Salt Spring Island that there will be a blood clinic in the Legion Hall on Friday, May 25. The hours are: 1.45 to 2.30 p.m. student donors; 2.30 to 4.30 p.m., open to all donors; 6.30 to 9 p.m., open to all donors.

The need for blood is a very urgent one and the Red Cross is asking Salt Spring Island for 175 pints.

It is our hope that this 175 pints will be met and it can with the help of all islanders from 18 to 65, plus young men of 17 with their parents' permission.

The Red Cross asks for your blood to help save a life, which could be your own!

So please, remember to attend the blood clinic on May 25th and be a donor.

Thank you, Mr. Editor, Peter R. Bingham, Chairman, Blood Clinic Committee, Salt Spring Island Branch, No. 92, The Royal Canadian Legion, Ganges, May 18, 1973.

PUBLIC DRINKING

Editor, Driftwood,

On Sunday I was at Centennial Park, where I found that there was a fair amount of beer drinking going on. I am not against beer drinking but I do not think that centennial park is the place to do it. This park has been developed mainly as a playground with swings and other equipment which makes it a fun place for smaller children and many families go there for that reason.

On the other hand if I see that drinking is being allowed to continue there right in broad daylight we will not go there again until I am satisfied to see that something definite is being done to put a halt to drinking in the park which is a public place and this is illegal, as well as being offensive to people with families.

And on the way home as I was driving along my way was obstructed by 3 youths, or young adults who were walking in the centre of the road.

I told them off for this and they immediately responded by loud swearing and obscene language. When I stopped at my home and got out of my car they continued using obscene language from the corner and one actually came down the street and acted in a threatening manner. Then they went up McPhillips to Mouat Park.

It is nice to think of Mouat Park if it is a park where families can go but the types that now often frequent the campsites there are driving the families away. I feel angry about this and would like to see real improvement there in the situation at Mouat Park and Centennial Park also.

Geoff Howland, Ganges, May 22, 1973.

IT WAS HIDDEN?

Editor, Driftwood,

As a member of our local flying club I was disappointed about your well-hidden write-up in last week's Driftwood. Where pictures of the fly-in should have been, there smiled a happy bride and her groom. Why didn't you tell your readers about the cheering crowds lining both sides of the highway from Fulford International Airport to the Ganges Crest, as the cavalcade of visiting flyers slowly drove by. We counted more than 800 enthusiasts, no doubt all petitioners in favor of the airport.

And no mention was made of the fact that even island planners may use the airport in

MAY DAY DRAW FOR HAMPERS

Elementary School students at Ganges prepared hampers for a draw on May Day. Funds for the draw will be used for the entertainment of elementary school students visiting here from Fernie and Kamloops during the first week in June.

Parents donated both home baking and canned goods. Their response was so good that five hampers were made up.

Winners are listed below: Hampers: Mrs. S. Magdy, R. Billington, Ellen Hazenboom, Mrs. V. Larson, and Roy Lee. Shampoo and Set, donated by Dutch Beauty Salon, H. Sampson, 3450 Cedar Hill, Victoria.

The money raised amounted to $318.70 of which $121.10 came from the bake sale and $197.60 from the draw for hampers.

FIRE MARSHALL IS NAMED AT GALIANO

Harry Baines, Sr., has been appointed fire marshal for North Galiano.

On Sunday a demonstration was made of all the fire-fighting equipment available at North Galiano. It has mostly been given or lent to the community by residents.

Islanders were invited to familiarize themselves with the equipment and to analyze what more might be needed.

emergency situations, such as a call on the carpet by the minister, when new directives are to be issued.

To critics who claim that flying over Salt Spring Island is dangerous we have only this to say: The air is generally tranquil over this island, except for some unexplained turbulence over Isabella point; there must be a lot of hot air rising in that area. But never mind, we are all getting a tremendous high out of that. A pilot learns how to make the best out of any adverse situation. That's why he is a happy person.

COMMUNITY ARTS COUNCIL

Olive Clayton to Serve Again

Olive Clayton was re-elected president of the Gulf Islands Community Arts Council at the annual meeting held in the Legion Hall in Ganges, Thursday afternoon, May 17.

Mrs. Clayton and all CAC executives were chosen by acclamation in proceedings conducted by Henry Schubart as temporary chairman.

Windsor Utley will continue as vice-president; Gordon Matthews as past president. Isabel Goodman is recording secretary; Lanny Howard, secretary-treasurer.

The executive board for the coming year will include: P. K. Battacharjee, Emily Crosby, Betty Campbell, Barbara Hastings, Olive Layard, Donna Metcalf, Joyce Mitchell, Marguerite Pearce, Donna Ross, Margaret Russell, Margaret Schubart, Margaret Simons, Corinne Snell, Mary Lyn Stack, Ora Symes, Lorna Tweedale, Evelyn Underhill, Josephine Utley and Tom Volquardsen.

It was agreed that board members would undertake individual assignments such as hospitality, publicity and program arrangements at an executive meeting to be held in the near future.

Preceding the election, Mrs. Clayton had structured the agenda to give the members a broad view of the organization's achievements since last June. Minutes of the previous annual meeting were read by Isabel Goodman and approved. P. K. Battacharjee gave an account of finances. Particularly significant is the fact that, although the yearly grant from the Provincial Cultural Fund to all the Gulf Islands is merely $400, the local Arts Council has realized enough from its summer show and sale to pay the expenses of a series of events during the rest of the year and make subventions of $1,210 to the thriving arts and crafts groups on the various islands. These monies are spent on educational workshops and equipment. Educational opportunities are further enlarged through the co-operation of the school district's Program for Continuing Education.

Josephine Utley, as program convener, read a report on the events she had arranged during the past year. They included an illustrated talk on "Petroglyphs of Vancouver Island" by Beth Hill, a reading by Phyllis Webb of her own poems, and musical performances by the Purcell String Quartet, the Collegium Musicum of Victoria, and Clair Lawrence and Kathy Stack. These events were free to CAC members and there was an enthusiastic turn-out for each of them. They were held in private homes where the intimate atmosphere enhanced the rapport between performers and listeners and there was an opportunity for them to discuss the program as it went along. Refreshments were served on each occasion.

Evelyn Underhill, membership chairman, reported that the CAC numbers 270 people as the fiscal year ends. She reminded the group that the $2 membership fee would be renewable as of June 1. Anyone wishing to exhibit in Art-Craft '73 must belong to the CAC; the former practice of reducing the membership fee during the second half of the year will be discontinued. Mrs. Underhill also gave an account of the Salt Spring Island Painters Guild activities. Emily Crosby outlined the Salt Spring Potters Guild's use of its workshop grant. Josephine Utley gave a similar account for the Salt Spring Weavers. Corinne Snell reported for Galiano, Ora Symes for Pender, and Joyce Mitchell for Mayne Island.

P. K. Battacharjee discussed the continuing exhibit of paintings at Lady Minto Hospital, which has been under his direction; Emily Crosby has volunteered to take over his duties.

A variety of other matters, such as re-distribution of executive duties and alternative methods of nominating officers, was considered; they will be dealt with at subsequent meetings.

HORSES TAKE PART IN PARADE

Twenty horses of many colors and sizes were entered in Saturday's May Day Parade.

From the smallest pony to the largest horse, there was an excellent showing of good grooming and horsemanship.

A lot of time had been spent in getting both horse and rider ready for the parade. Even under the stress of the excitement, most horses behaved very well.

Pony rides, under the management of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Luth, again proved to be a big success with the children. It was amusing to watch all of the youngsters riding with the biggest of smiles.

A new event for the celebrations was a Trail Class sponsored by the Riding Club. Under the watchful eyes of Jean Taylor and Rod Pringle, horses were asked to carefully manoeuvre a series of obstacles.

A sheet of plastic placed on the ground proved to be the most difficult obstacle, as it flapped in the wind.

Winners of the event were first, Valerie Knowles, on Tam-mie; second, Jennifer Blackett on Pal; third Norman Mouat on Blue Dawn, with Lorie Clarke on Apache, in reserve.

Many island riders are busy again this week with Merrill Harrop's riding clinic. It's very encouraging to watch the progress of everyone involved. This week the lessons run from Tuesday through Saturday with a show on Sunday.

This is another first for the island. Horse and rider will be judged by performance rather than on the idea of conformation of different breeds.

Spectators are encouraged to watch as island riders demonstrate what they have learned

WHAT HAPPENS TO LEGION NOW ?

Regular meeting of Branch 84, Royal Canadian Legion, was held at Saturna on Monday, May 14. President John Menzies, was in the chair, and the attendance was rather smaller than usual.

The usual Silence period was observed for fallen and departed members, with special mention of Comrade Walter Warlow, a past president of the branch, who had died since the last meeting.

There was some discussion concerning "Fly the Flag" week in which the branch has decided to participate. Also in this connection it was reported that Comrade John McDonald had arranged for a flag to be flown at the ferry wharf at Saturna. This was in consequence of some correspondence that had taken place with Highways Minister Robert Strachan in charge of ferry operations.

It was decided to hold the next meeting at Mayne. This will be an evening meeting, and time and place, some time in late June will be announced later.

The future of the Royal Canadian Legion is a topic that we have been discussing at intervals for some time. As most people are aware, membership in the Legion is largely restricted to those who served in the armed forces, and such auxiliaries as the Merchant Marine, and the Fire-Fighting Force sent over to Britain at the time of the blitz in the second war.

Naturally, in times of peace our recruiting area for new members is almost nil, and despite the saying that Old Soldiers never die, they do. One has only to glance at the Last Post column in the Legionary to recognize this. Not too long ago, this branch had at least half of its members veterans of the first war, and three of its members who had served in South Africa. Today we have less than ten members from 1914-1918, and some of our second war members have answered their Last Post call.

The question is, shall the Legion die as its members die, or shall we recruit from the non-veteran to maintain the work of the Legion, which extends far beyond the essential work of the Legion, that of looking after the welfare of veterans in need. It is our question. At the present time, this matter is being debated again, and we must arrive at a definite conclusion. We discussed this subject on Monday, finally tabling the matter to future meetings.

It was noted with regret that one of our first war members, and his wife, also a veteran and former member of the branch, had been attacked by an escaped prisoner at William Head while camping near Victoria. Both were rather badly injured and hospitalized, and the secretary was instructed to send the condolences of the branch to Comrade Jim Yates and his wife.

Our thanks go again to our favorite ration fatigue, the ladies of Saturna, for providing refreshments for the meeting, and to Mrs. Vincent, for replacing Mrs. Warlow at the piano.

GALIANO

BY MARY BACKLUND

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Neale are spending ten days holiday at their cottage at Montague Harbour.

Frank Neale works at CBC and his wife has a position at Johnson and Higgins. Just before they arrived, Frank Basarab was fitting a window. He started to bore a hole in the metal frame of the window, when it suddenly began to disintegrate. The window completely broke all up into little pieces, making a crackling noise. Frank said that it happens occasionally. He explained the cause but it was far too technical for me. It was just a stroke of bad luck.

This is the season for rushing around and getting boats ready for commercial fishing. There is great activity down at the docks these days, with fishermen and their wives out painting, scraping, cleaning, and generally getting ready for the fishing season.

Mrs. Joan Rice is visiting at Peaceful Valley for a week. She is manager of Sears store at Sumner, Washington, and is glad to have a rest, and visit with her many relatives.

of paintings in Deep Cove, near Sidney. Included are a number of Mayne exhibitors.

The display of island works will be offered in the church of St. John, on West Saanich Road, from May 27 to June 3. It will be open from 1 pm to 5 pm on Sundays and from 11 am to 4 pm on weekdays.

The show is the end of the series of seminars held in the Victoria Art Gallery, conducted by Salt Spring Island painter, Windsor Utley.

Formal opening will be on Sunday afternoon at two o'clock.

Among the painters whose works will be shown are Bessie Snider, Mary Cornielle, Nita Flick, Kay Ratcliffe, Peggy Larson, Gladys Boas, Ruby Pearson, Sylvia Conetta, Lillian Rogers and Joyce Swannell.

spend the day, and to form Branch 94 of Senior Citizens.

Elected president of Galiano branch was Mrs. Murphy, with secretary, R. J. Ausmun and treasurer, Archie Georgeson. The rest of the officers will be elected at their next meeting.

Mrs. Murphy welcomed a group from Mayne Island,

"Silver Maynes", and expressed delight at having formed a branch at Galiano.

Mrs. Kelly gave a short history of Senior Citizens which began in 1953, and now number more than ten thousand.

A presentation to the new president was made by Mrs.

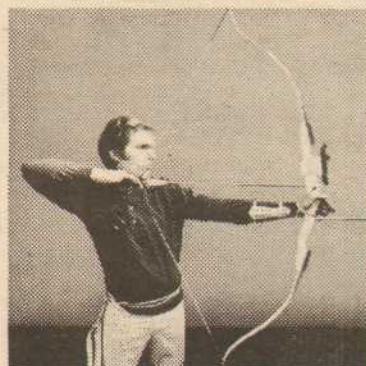

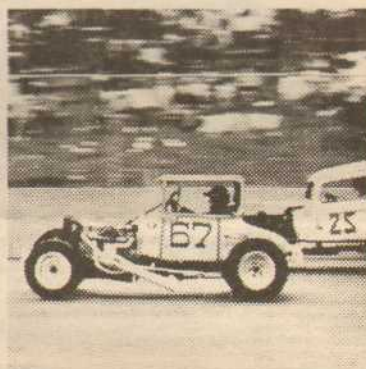

Campkin. It was a cake, made and decorated by her for the new branch.

PRESERVATION OF FARM LAND

BY MIKE LARMOUR

Do we need to preserve farm land?

It is, perhaps, difficult for us, living in a country with an abundance of food, to intellectually and emotionally appreciate the lack of food in many parts of the world. One third to one half the population of the earth is undernourished or malnourished. The number of deaths attributable to starvation is debatable because of lack of records and the fact that starving people often die of disease as they weaken, but one estimate is three million deaths per year, mostly children.

In many of the non-industrialized countries advances in agriculture resulting in greater food production have been counterbalanced by a large population increase, thus food production per capita has remained nearly constant, at a low level.

Even Salt Spring was once an important farming community. I am told of one shipment of 4,000 boxes of apples, and there were at least two orchards of 1,000 or more trees. Salt Spring butter and lamb were famous, and we had the first nursery in B. C.

In 33 years (United Nations estimates) the world's population will have doubled to almost 7 billion. Inevitably, Canadians will have to accept our responsibility to help feed this increase.

Agriculture has made impressive gains in productivity in recent years. Mechanization, irrigation, and the use of fertilizers, herbicides and pesticides are factors. New plant and animal strains are being developed for high production and resistance to disease or adverse weather conditions. Some of these gains are made at the expense of the environment.

There are many limiting factors on food production as well, water being among the most important. Salinization of irrigated land has turned millions of acres in Pakistan, Egypt, Greece, and South America into salt deserts. Disease, insects, erosion, and adverse weather all take their toll. Urban sprawl takes more than one million acres of farmland annually in the United States.

The graph below illustrates the potential danger we face with the exponential population increase and the loss of farm land from urban sprawl.

Total world supply of arable land is about 7.86 billion acres or about 3.2 billion hectares. About 0.4 hectares per person of arable land are needed at present productivity. The curve of land needed thus reflects the population growth curve. The light line after 1970 shows the projected need for land, assuming that world population continues to grow at its present rate. Arable land available decreases because arable land is removed for urban-industrial use as population grows. The dotted curves show land needed if present productivity is doubled or quadrupled.

* Reprinted by permission from:

The Limits to Growth, A Potomac Associates Book by Donella Meadows, Dennis Meadows, Jorgen Randers and William E. Behrens III, New York: Universe Books, 1972.

In British Columbia, some of the most productive farm lands in the Fraser Valley, Okanagan Valley, and Saanich Peninsula are being lost to agriculture. This, in a province that is already a net importer of food. Because of our mild climate on the coast a number of crops can be grown that will not flourish elsewhere in Canada.

On a more aesthetic level, our farmlands enrich our lives immeasurably by their beauty. It is hard to put a price on the sight of a green meadow, bordered by the dark forest, warm and fragrant in the spring sunshine. Who can say how much we will have lost if these reservoirs of peace and beauty are lost for ever?

In closing I would like to suggest that both the words and the deeds of Gordon Ruckle and family serve as an example and an inspiration to us all.

Any reader who is uncertain should contact the fire department on the island, or call DRIFTWOOD.

THAT ARTIST IS A SCOT !

Report from Galiano last week that Painter Duncan Crockford had been stranded there overnight was of interest to Grace Wright, regular contributor to DRIFTWOOD.

Mrs. Wright wrote of the Artist from Scotland when she was living in Alberta. At that time both were residents of Canmore; she as the wife of the Anglican vicar and he as an artist.

It's doubtful whether any man has more right to claim this little foothills community as his own than a bearded, bagpipe-blowing Scot, internationally known as Duncan, wrote Grace Wright several years ago in the Calgary Herald.

Crockford hails from the Isle of Mull, at the western end of the Caledonian Canal. In 1953 he came to Canada with a few dollars, 34 paintings and a recommendation from Churchill.

Mrs. Wright noted that when Crockford staged his first one-man show it was aboard a ship crossing the Atlantic. He missed the show through sea-sickness

His visit to Galiano last week was prompted by yet another problem of crossing the sea. His ship broke down between Victoria and Vancouver and he stayed overnight at Galiano.

Political Club endorses Island Plan

Gulf Islands N. D. P. Club has urged the adoption of the Salt Spring Island Community Plan. In a letter to Alf Nunweiler, chairman of the Select Committee on Municipal Affairs, the island group outlines its support for the work undertaken by the community.

The island NDP group's letter follows:

At the recent meeting held in Ganges to discuss Salt Spring Island's community plan, you emphasized the fact that our legislators would be very responsive to opinion expressed by local groups. Hence, our N. D. P. Club has voted unanimously to send you this letter to indicate our support of the Salt Spring Island community plan. As socialists we endorse the concept of participation in the decision-making process by the people directly affected by those decisions.

In particular, we wish to stress our concern for future provision for transportation. We feel it is imperative, in terms of the island's plan which necessarily must relate to mainland transportation as well as purely local movement, to provide for moving people, not necessarily in cars. It is consistent with the N. D. P. government's manifest interest in protecting environment and conserving farmland to make use of fast passenger ships connecting urban points, in turn linked with efficient public road transport. This sort of system would help the province reverse the need for paved-over acres of parking at ferry terminals and added miles of roads. Put in our local context, this kind of transportation solution would be an important means of helping to conserve the scenic beauty and rustic quality of the Gulf Islands. As it is, we have occasional traffic jams in Ganges during the summer and on holiday weekends!

We have written previously to Minister Robert Strachan of our concern on this point. His reply indicated concurrence with our point of view, but the proposed rerouting of the Horseshoe Bay-Nanaimo ferry seems a direct contradiction to such an approach. Our purpose in writing you is to request with all the persuasion we can muster, that as your committee examines this plan as well as those of other communities, your approval should be given to plans which include the establishment of a transportation system that is human in scale.

RECYCLING STUDY ENDS

Allan McCrae, the consultant hired by the Department of the Environment, recently published his report "RECYCLING OF SOLID WASTE IN THE CAPITAL REGIONAL DISTRICT OF B. C." It was prepared with the assistance of the Regional District and the Recycling Depot staff and volunteers.

After a detailed consideration of economic and other aspects of Project Recycle, he reports that "if the Regional District wishes to promote the same principles as the Project Recycle founders, the present operation is a good vehicle."

This study will help the Capital Regional Board later this month to decide on the future of the present recycling system and its possible expansion.

Salt Spring Island's Recycle Project is part of Project Recycle and can only continue if the Victoria Depot continues to function. Those wishing to support the idea of Recycling may write to:

Chairman and Directors,
Capital Regional District
Board,
524 Yates Street,
Victoria, B. C. or phone Director Mark Holmes at Fulford Harbour.

The Salt Spring Island Recycle depot is open every Saturday from 10 am until 2 pm, at the Freight Shed on Mouat's Wharf.

NO TRACE OF BOY

Body of the 19-year-old Edmonton youth lost in a small-boat accident recently has not yet been found.

Gregory Ralph Lust was drowned when a small boat capsized off Secretary Island on April 20.

Following is the report of his death in his hometown newspaper, the Edmonton Journal:

A memorial service has been held at the Unitarian Church for Gregory Ralph Lust, 19, who died in a boating accident off the southeast coast of Vancouver Island last month.

Mr. Lust, formerly of 11303 57th Ave., died when a 12-foot boat with seven passengers capsized at night. The other six people were rescued.

A three-day search failed to find Mr. Lust's body.

Born in Edmonton, he attended Spruce Avenue, Avalon and Harry Ainlay schools. After graduating last year, he travelled throughout eastern Canada, then moved to Fulford Harbor on Salt Spring Island, off the southern B.C. coast.

Mr. Lust was interested in drama and music. While at Harry Ainlay, he was involved in the drama department and he played piano and guitar.

He had little experience with sailing before the mishap.

He is survived by his mother and father, Albert and Millicent, and two brothers, William and James.

CAR ROLLS OFF ROAD EARLY SUNDAY MORNING

RCMP at Ganges are still investigating a motor vehicle accident on Fulford-Ganges Road early Sunday morning when the vehicle driven by Gordon Bruce Smith, 744 Discovery St., Victoria, crashed through the fence at the Roy Lee property in Fulford.

At 2 am the Smith car was travelling south when it left the road and entered the right-hand ditch. It then ran out of the ditch, crossed the road and rolled through the Lee fence. No one was hurt.

Read and heed all labels and written instructions on containers before using household and drug products.

MOLOTOV COCKTAILS

elements. A number of customers finished their meals and threw the check on the floor, to walk out without paying.

One man kicked a hole in the wall of the coffee shop when payment was demanded. Cost of the damage has not been ascertained.

On Monday evening police were again called to the wharf at Fulford, where a number of week end visitors were creating a furore in the ferry queue.

There was little trouble at Galiano until Monday when the occupants of one campsite attacked another, using molotov cocktails as their weapon.

On Salt Spring Island two were charged with causing a disturbance, one with wilful damage and assault as well as several liquor charges and charges under the Motor Vehicle Act.

By Tuesday the island communities were sitting back to assess the damage.

An Islander took his week end guests to Beaver Point Park. The island resident drives a pick-up and carried two barks of timber to enable him to cross a creek on his property without building a bridge. They inspected the park and returned to the truck. One length of lumber was missing.

An island couple came to Ganges to spend a quiet week end in their cottage in the vicinity of Mouat Park. They moved on to Duncan to escape the uproar.

Residents of the Drake Road-Seaview Drive area have asked the Salt Spring Island Chamber of Commerce to press for the closing of Mouat Park. It is a magnet to the unruly elements and cannot be used by any lawful holidaymaker, they charge. Commented another visitor, it is too near the liquor store.

SATURNA BY PAPAJOHN

Our Chicken Barbecue was, as usual, a grand success despite an earlier much-needed rain and brisk wind which taxed the ingenuity of the barbecuers in getting the proper heat to the chicken but they did it and how. After our chicken had been digested, a group of our local musicians started things humming with a lively hour or so of fun and frolics.

Of course counting pills doesn't make you a qualified electrician, so after spending three or four hours trying to get a small screw into a light fixture we took it down to John MacDonald at the wharf store and he did it in about one minute.

While we are at it we should mention that John has a new gasoline float with a new pump and water connections at our wharf float. With a huge storage tank John can now give fully modern and efficient service to all boat owners.

Our sad news is that long-time Saturna residents, Hilda and Jim Yates were the elderly couple that an escapee from Williams Head attacked in their trailer at Sooke. We hear that they are both out of hospital now but it will take a long time for them to get over such an experience.

Our guest list this week is a long one and if we have missed anyone we are sorry.

Vi and Bill Shinduke had Vi's son Jim Reburn, wife Hope and grandson Billy over for Bill to continue spoiling.

On Bonny Bank Road were Aileen and Bev Campbell; Bev may run out of water if he keeps extending his wharf. Shirley Embra over to inspect her new embankment shoring up. Stella Coutts with a houseful of guests and Kay and Bob Close who spent their weekend cutting grass. Gwen and Dave Welch from Victoria with their family. Dave is a happy guy; he has no grass to cut.

Over at Boot Cove were Joan and Mike Tweedy with Kevin and Malcolm. Kevin had an attack of his asthma and we had to rush out the penicillin. Kay Cronin over and she found no trouble this trip. Marg Fry had trouble; her hot water tank wouldn't hot but after John MacDonald diagnosed the trouble, George Whiting put a new element in and Marg was quite happy. Mary Dickey and her sister Jean Grant were over for the barbecue but were too late to get tickets.

The Gordon Clan from Sidney were over, Lora and Verne with Sherry, Kathy and Karen Ann and Tom with Tom and Linda so they had enough players for scrub baseball.

As usual East Point had its influx of natives. Betty and Doug Collins and their family. Doug gives me a wide berth; we got him to do the column once and will again if we can catch him. Jean and Don Jamieson and some of the kids; the rest are grown up and working. It happens in all families, Don. The Mackey family over also. We will have to get someone out there to either write or keep us properly posted.

Clarice Warlow had some very welcome guests, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Goodwin. Vera and Bob Rodway over. Bob is installing a very tricky burglar alarm. He says that at the price he has to pay for a wee bit of hooch he is d... if he is going to have some punk break in and steal what is already a big steal.

Our Community Club dues are only fifty (50) cents a year. Most of the people pay up but, as usual, some forget. It is NOT the 50 cents we are after it is the fact that when we write a letter to ye Government or someone it is rather disconcerting to our secretary or president that we don't have more members. So to anyone who wishes to give us their support they can really do it by contacting Jack Vincent our treasurer or anyone of our executive. We are not so foolish as to say we don't need your 50 cents but what we do need more is your support and that is only going to cost you 50 cents. Now that plug should get me a free membership but we doubt that Jack Vincent is susceptible to our blarney!

Workshop For Artists In June

Workshop for artists in planned for Salt Spring Island in June.

David Preston, graduate of UBC will hold a Federation Painting Workshop for five or six hours each day, June 12, 13, 14 and 15.

Workshop will open to the Salt Spring Island Painters' Guild of the Community Arts Council.

It is already nearly fully subscribed.

The workshop is offered by the Federation of Canadian Artists, B. C. Division in collaboration with the B. C. Cultural Fund. Such workshops will be staged in various centres of the province.

TWO LOSE TOTAL OF 221 POUNDS

Provincial Recognition Day for Tops was held in Chilliwack on May 12. There were 1,400 registered Tops members representing groups from all over B. C.

One of the local Tops group B. C. No. 1292 was represented by Mrs. John Burke.

Tops King was Mr. Gilfillan of Port Alberni who had lost a total of 92 lbs. and Tops Queen was Mrs. Caroline Jensen of Port Alberni who had lost a total of 127 lbs.

Just finished reading a new book, "The Domsday Syndrome" by John Maddox, Editor of Nature Magazine. It is an attack on pessimism. For all of us who are disgusted, to put it very mildly, with the news media (excepting Driftwood) and the raft of books on population explosion, famine, and you name it, about what a mess the world is in, this gives factual facts and dispels a lot of the untruths and partial untruths about ecology, our world food supply and a lot of other factors about our world. It is not light reading but it sure gave me a lift. In other words this old world is not such a bad place and the people by and large are not all monsters. Try it for a lift!

Visitors last week were Irene and George Bodor with Stevie and Eva. They have a new summer cottage which they can't use because the contractor who built it never got a building permit or finished the job. George says that when the contractor gets it all in order he will THEN pay him. Stevie Bodor aged ten had all the locals rubbing their eyes - he was riding around on a unicycle. We timed him with the car and he makes about six miles an hour, no hands, etc.

Emily and Alec Close have their summer home on Sunset Boulevard here. It is really Sunset Boulevard now as Emily came up early last week and the cottage is now a bright golden color. She should hang out her shingle as a painter.

HOW CAN I ???

By Anne Ashley

Q. How can I preserve the natural color of knotty pine?

A. By treating it with a half-and-half solution of turpentine and linseed oil. A thorough treatment should be allowed to dry for about two hours at least. Any excess may then be wiped off. Keep up the treatment, using a good clean brush, until the wood no longer absorbs the mixture.

Q. How can I dispel the unpleasant odor that comes from my garbage disposal after grinding cabbage, cauliflower, onions, or other strong-smelling vegetables?

A. By grinding up a half-lemon after all the waste matter has been disposed of.

Q. How can I, when skinning boiled potatoes for a salad, avoid having the skins sticking to my knife and hands?

A. By putting a little shortening on your knife and your hands.

Q. How can I remove an especially stubborn "press-on" type of knob or dial from the radio or television set?

A. Loop a twisted scrap of strong soft cloth behind the knob, gripping the loose ends firmly in your fingers. Press the cabinet front with your thumb tips, at the same time pulling firmly on the cloth. The knob will usually work free.

Q. How can I remove lipstick stains from my linen napkins?

A. Soak the stains in liquid detergent full strength for a few minutes, then wash as usual. One complete section of my new household-hints book is devoted to the treatment of stains of all kinds.

Q. How can I prevent weevils from invading my canisters of flour, cereal, and the like?

A. By putting one bay leaf in each of these canisters. This discourages the weevils without the grains' absorbing any of the odor of the bay leaf.

Q. What is an easy way to make my kitchen sink sparkling white?

A. Put a layer of paper towels over the bottom of your sink, soak these with ordinary household bleach, leave the soggy towels on for about a half-hour, then remove them and admire your glistening, spotless sink.

Q. What can I do if a box of cereal has become soggy?

A. You can make the contents crisp again by putting them on a cookie sheet and heating for a few minutes in the oven. This method is also fine for re-crisping crackers.

GUEST SPEAKER AND ISLAND FUTURE

CURTIS LOOKS BACK ON PLANNING

BY MARY BACKLUND

More than 60 people at the annual Installation Dinner of the Galiano Island Chamber of Commerce heard a resume of island planning and a forecast of its future from Hugh Curtis, MLA. Mr. Curtis was guest of honor.

Mr. Curtis spoke at the beginning of the evening to enable him to return home on the late ferry.

Mr. Curtis observed that recent events had focussed a great deal of attention on the Gulf Islands. "To look ahead it is often necessary to look back," he commented. His first contact on the Gulf Islands was Magic Lake on Pender Island.

"I was frankly appalled," he told the Chamber.

Subsequent provincial government action was taken to stem this type of large-scale subdivision. More important was the awareness leading to action on the part of Islanders themselves, he recalled.

It is this grass roots initiative this "on-island activity", which means more to me and I suggest should mean more to you, than all government pronouncements, Regional District by-laws, University-oriented studies and projections.

The recent tour of MLA's showed that each Island is separate and distinct, with its own attitudes and requirements, he commented.

Mr. Curtis was thanked by Hall Tingley.

Steve Riddell then swore-in the new president, Frank Reader for the coming year.

Mr. Reader took a short look at activities of the past year.

He referred to the work done to complete the community plan for the island, and thanked especially Mr. Riddell, Mrs. Fred Robson, Woody Coward, Basil Bengier, Miss Jean Lockwood, and Reg Brannan.

He told of completion of blacktopping to North Galiano, and the question of a new name for the chamber.

The new president suggested that those people who disagree with the name Chamber of Commerce form another organization.
