COMOX.

There were four schools in operation in this district:—North Comox, South Comox, Courtenay, and Denman Island.

During each of the past five years the schools in this district have shown marked increase both in enrolment and in average daily attendance.

A school was opened in September of the present school year at Union Mines, with an attendance of 36 pupils.

COWICHAN.

Eleven schools were in operation in this district during the entire year:—

| South Cowichan, | Somenos,      |
|                 | Vesuvius.     |

While a general interest has been manifested in the welfare of the schools of this district by both trustees and parents, it is worthy of remark that the trustees of Mayne Island made 104 visits to their school during the past year, being the largest number made by the trustees of any rural school. Statistics given in Table A show that the praiseworthy example thus set by the trustees was followed by parents of the district generally.
